On November 22, 1969 the Buffalo office advised that PIERI had departed for Cleveland and was supposed to leave Cleveland via unknown airline for an unknown destination on Saturday, November 22, 1969. Surveillances were maintained in Cleveland Hopkins Airport from 12:30 PM thru 4:00 PM this date with no activities concerning the subject noted. Spot checks were made of the Somerset Motel, Shaker Heights, Ohio and the Blue Grass Motel on Sunday, November 23, 1969 and Monday, November 24, 1969. These efforts met with negative results.

On November 26, 1969 and November 28, 1969 surveillances were conducted in the area of the Somerset Inn, 3550 Northfield Road, the Highlander Motor Inn, 4353 Northfield Road and the Blue Grass Motel, 5500 Northfield Road. The interior of these motels as well as the parking areas were checked for the subject as well as other known individuals with whom the subject has been in contact. These spot checks were all negative.

A check with the Somerset Inn revealed on November 28, 1969 that SAM PIERI was not registered in the motel as of that date.

For the information of the Buffalo office, it is to be noted that [redacted]
Cleveland, Ohio, at the request of their Buffalo office, had
